Wanderlust Hotel

Hotelier Loh Lik Peng's latest creative venture has turned what was once the Hong Wen School into a hip new hotel in Little India. The Wanderlust Hotel (www.wanderlusthotel.com) was designed by four different design firms to give each floor a unique look and feel promising diverse experiences within a single venue. The creative minds of Asylum, PhunkStudio, DP Architects and fFurious turned this 1920's building into a unique design enclave.
